

Hungarian vet school
separated from Szent István Univ.
(from July 2016)

To Whom it may Concern

Dear Colleagues,

Dear Partners,

the Hungarian veterinary school used to be for the last 16 years a Faculty of the Szent István University. From July 2016, however, our school became independent again and bears the name University of Veterinary Medicine, Budapest (UVMB).

Based on the Hungarian National Higher Education Act the separating university (UVMB) is full legal successor of Szent István University, Faculty of Veterinary Science. The legal successor status includes, but is not limited to following procedures: issuing degrees, certificates, transcripts for our current, recent and former students.

Our postal address, homepage, phone / fax numbers and the main email to the Secretariat of International Study Programs (student@univet.hu) did not change. The personal email-addresses, however, became slightly different and are set according to the system: `familyname.firstname@univet.hu`; the head of the school can be contacted at `rector@univet.hu`.

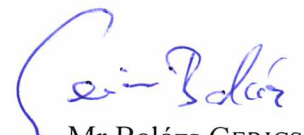

We do not expect to see major changes in the academic life of our students based on our regained independence.

You are more than welcome to contact us for any questions.

Sincerely,

Budapest, 19th July 2016
