

Oath of the veterinary students

I,/ promise under oath / to the flag of the University of Veterinary Medicine/ that during my studies in Hungary / I will respect the laws of the country. / I shall keep the regulations of the University of Veterinary Medicine Budapest. / I promise solemnly / that I will respect the professors and teachers of the university / and that my conduct will be becoming of a veterinary professional. / I also pledge to assist my fellow students. / I will pursue my studies with a full sense of responsibility / and prepare myself to the best of my ability / for all my duties and obligations in my profession,/ so as to be able to serve the veterinary community with my knowledge. (So help me God!)”
